Dear Parents and Carers

We have had a superb week. Firstly there was the Christingle Service at St.Martin's Church in Welton with Father Terry. On Tuesday we were treated to Class 1's Christmas Nativity Play in St Nicholas Church. This was followed by Class 2's performance of Bethlehem the Musical on Wednesday evening. The children have been fabulous and all the acting and singing was fantastic! Thank you for coming to see them and for your enthusiastic response!

I attach a letter that will appear in a paper copy on Monday re: before and after school timings. In a nutshell, the window for dropping off children in the morning will be slightly later between 8.45 and 8.55 am, with collection time between 3.05 and 3.15 pm. Clubs will run from 3.15 to 4.15. Further details are in the letter.

Today

Today has also been brilliant! The children had the Blighty (Christmas) Belles singing for them this morning and we all ended up dancing and waving flags. It was a fabulous start to the day! The children taking down the stage in the Church also gave an impromptu concert for the people at the Partney Friday Coffee Morning!

Mrs Parker cooked the most amazing Christmas Dinner for everyone today and Miss Slaymaker prepared the trifle! We all enjoyed ourselves and then went outside for playtime and saw the most amazing rainbow!

Everybody thought it was all over, then suddenly we heard sleigh bells and Santa arrived! He gave us all presents and it was the perfect end to a lovely day.
