Newsletter – Friday 11th March 2017

Dear Parents and Carers

Super work by the Year 6s this week – well done to all of them. A big thank you goes to Mrs Morris for motivating the children and keeping their spirits up during the week! Thank you also to Mrs Martini who has been such a support and to our Monitors: Jane Slaymaker, Julia Brocklehurst, Rosemary James, Jo Lennon and Gill Handford for giving up their time for the children this week.

Golden Writers

Alicia has written a beautiful story based on 'Danny, Champion of the World'. She has captured the warmth and wit of Roald Dahl's original characters. It's a fabulous piece of work! Ellie Wood has used a conversational voice to write a biography. It has a lovely style, making the factual information very easy to read – well done Ellie! Toby has been doing some writing at home with Mum and has really impressed us all with what he can do! Keep it up, Toby!

Curriculum News

I have attached the Curriculum outline for each class for this summer term. If you think you may have any resources or knowledge that the children could benefit from, please let us know!

Reception Reading for Parents

Just a reminder that this is being held at 2.30pm on Tuesday 16th May. Thank you to those who have returned their slips. We are looking forward to seeing you!

PFA Treasure Hunt/Whodunnit! Friday 19th May at 6pm

Tickets are available at the school office. It is The event will take place around the village and there will be burgers and a barbecue at the end. Who will solve the crime? Who will win the wooden spoon? . . .

Swimming

Letters for Round 2 of swimming have gone out this week, for starting next week (Friday 19th). Please could you return permission slips by Wednesday 17th May. Is there a Mum or a Dad out there who would be able to accompany us to swimming, for an extra pair of eyes when the children are in the pool? If you can, please contact me by email. If there are enough people, we could do it on a rota basis.

Fundraising and Thank you

Vicky Bamforth has sent us a letter to say thank you for taking part in the Easter Egg decorating competition. She reports that on the day they made £150 with all the school entries and this took her overall total to £3596 of her £5000 target. Not far to go! We will be supporting Vicki further by advertising her events – there a fashion show coming up on July 29th – the poster is attached. Best of Luck to Vicki!
