setting description, then had some feedback on it, started again and took on board everything that had been suggested. This made for a really effective piece of writing. Well done – we adults struggle with that!

Class 1 Recycling Projects - Wednesday 21st November at 2pm

We would like to invite parents and carers of all the children in Class 1 to come and see the class projects this term. Please come in through the main reception. We have seen lots of ingenious work!

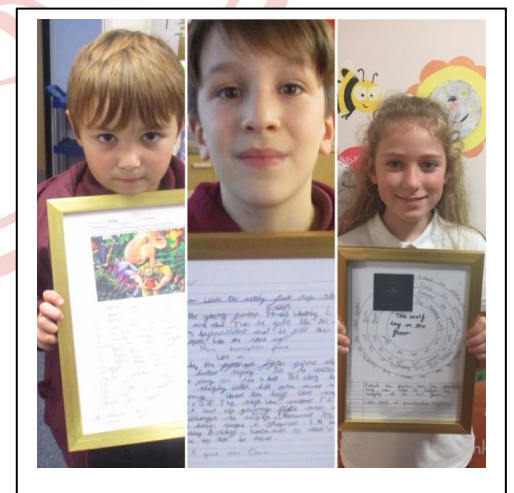

Book Fair – Tuesday 20th November

The book fair will be open for business on Tuesday 20th, Wednesday 21st, Thursday 22nd (all from 3pm) and on Friday 23rd after Golden Assembly. It will also appear at the Quingo! Thanks everyone for your offers of help! A raffle ticket will be given for each ticket purchased – this will be drawn on Friday 30th at Golden Assembly.

I feel as though the busy time has begun this week! Thank you all for your orders for the Christmas Cards. We hope you enjoy them!

Golden Writers

Jack wrote an absolutely lovely description of his puzzling picture today. Thank you for making us all smile with your fantastic vocabulary, Jack! Niamh has been creating a much better sentence than her teacher! She added clauses and much better vocabulary to uplevel the sentence. It certainly had the WOW factor! Oscar achieved something that is quite difficult for anyone to do. He started a

School Uniform

Please could I ask that everybody has a check that Names in jumpers/hoodies/shorts etc are still clear and that there are no jumpers belonging to anyone else lurking in bedrooms and bags. Two small hoodies (Year 1 child) have gone missing with his name in it.

Mirror, Mirror on the Wall

Mrs Smith is looking for some small mirrors to help with an activity next week. Anything small like a hand held/compact mirror would be useful, with regard to the edges being safe for children to handle. Many thanks!
