Newsletter – Friday 3rd November 2017

Dear Parents and Carers

Welcome back! It is lovely to see the children all ready and raring to go! We are looking forward this week to Our Class 3 performance of 'Twelfth Night' at the Skegness Embassy Theatre. Mrs Morris has been working with the class since the beginning of term and it is shaping up really well! We are really proud to be taking part in this event. (Tickets are available from the Embassy Theatre Box Office.) We would also like to thank J&A International for donating and printing the T-shirts for the performance.

(Apologies – I have had trouble with photos today so will send them on with the next newsletter).

Golden Writers

Frankie is our youngest writer this week and she is mastering cursive writing now – keep it up Frankie! Rachel was able to write her very own Shakespearean Sonnet, with all the rules and rhymes that it must follow! She even managed some Shakespearean style language, thou knowst! Daniel has been making massive progress in his writing this term and we have all noticed how much effort he is putting into his handwriting – well done Daniel!

Remembrance Poppies

We are currently selling Poppies at school. The children can bring in some donations for a paper poppy. We also have some more elaborate poppy merchandise including bracelets, snap on bracelets and wrist bands that can be bought by adults from the office for a donation of £1.

Autumn Fair and Harvest Festival

Thank you for supporting our Autumn Fair and Harvest Festival in Church. We raised more than £307 for the School fund – Many thanks! The food banks will benefit from the donations you brought for the Church and Reverend Jean Coates was really impressed with how many parents came to support us for our Harvest Service. Thank you once again!

Sumdog Contest

Our second competition has started with all three classes now registered! Come on Partney!

National Roast Dinner Day – Wednesday 15th November - £2.50

Mrs Parker is going to be cooking a Roast Dinner for all that would like it on 15th November. The cost will be £2.50 for the meal. If you would like to order one (for your child!) please contact the office in the usual ways.
