Newsletter – Friday 5th January 2018

Dear Parents and Carers

Happy New Year, everyone! The children have come back raring to go and so have all the staff! On the day before the children came back, all the Governors and Staff got together and thought about our Church School Values. We are still ‘Sailing the Seven Cs’ and the Values we felt were the wind in the Sails were: Compassion, Commitment, Charity, Collaboration, Courage, Curiosity and Celebration. We will be introducing all of these concepts to the children and exploring them further with their vital contribution. Here’s to the next 50 years!

Golden Writers

Ollie has created a fabulous adventure story. We are so proud of the progress he has made in writing and we hope he is too! Leon is another novel writer in the making. He used some incredible vocabulary that shows how much he is enjoying his books! Well done Leon! Martha has written a persuasive letter addressed to me. Subject: Why we shouldn’t have homework. Did it persuade me? Well, despite the very good arguments and the beautiful handwriting and paragraphing, no. keep trying Martha! And last but by no means least, Finley has used some lovely words to describe the T-Rex. He said it was stomping through the bushes! Speaking of Dinosaurs . . .

Under the Sea

We are so impressed with the work that Class 2 have been doing over the Christmas Holidays for their new topic this term. Some beautiful work and research has come back. You have all been so busy! The Class 1 and 2 trip to the Deep and the Maritime Museum in Hull on Tuesday will further fire imaginations as well as one or two other fishy visitors we may have along the way . . .

Clubs

Clubs will be starting next week, apart from PFA Club which will be starting a week later on the 15th January. All clubs will now finish at 4.15 and please collect children from the playground doors as usual. Please also note that there is a small charge of 50p per week for Art Club.

One of our Dinosaurs is Missing!

Last seen on Maddison Lane! Can you help us? Where has Tim the Triceratops gone? Where might he be going?
