MATTERS ARISING Christmas disco had been a successful event

FINANCE Approximately £1500 in bank. Jon proposed purchasing a new projector for use in the hall. Cost in the region of £500/£600. All in agreement. Projector will need a protective metal cage.

FUTURE EVENTS

	Action
Disco Friday 17th March 6:30 – 8pm Flyers Helpers: Jon, Sarah, Jane, Gill and possibly Laura (Enzo's mother)	Jo
Chocolate Bingo Friday 24th March Flyers Children bringing in chocolate bingo prizes need not wear uniform. In addition to the bingo game Sarah suggested holding a 'back to front' raffle where, as tickets are picked out, people sit down. The last number picked, wins. Raffle tickets: £1. Bingo £1/board. Tea/ coffee and tuckshop. Helpers: Sarah, Jo, Jane, possibly Amber, Kate (caller)	Jo Sarah to purchase suitable adult and child prize
Treasure Hunt Friday 19th May 6pm Details to be confirmed, but burger/hotdog to be included in ticket price. Tara has offered to put on her 1940's show 'Blighty Belles' It was felt this would be a good fundraising/social event. We would charge for entrance tickets and sell burgers/hot dogs etc, have some stalls and run a 'big' raffle, selling tickets in advance. Friday 7 th July was proposed with maybe an option of putting it back to 14 th July if wet.	 Sarah to confirm dates with Tara
Leavers Do Friday 14th July	Sarah (?) to confirm with Emma Morris if there are any plans

ANY OTHER BUSINESS

Jane suggested running a tombola at one of the St James Coffee Mornings. The School Council could be involved collecting tombola prizes and deciding how the money raised is spent. To confirm date.
Fundraising bread shave?!?
